Sunday afternoon the Zeta Tau Alpha sorority entertained at a mother-daughter tea, given annually on Mother's day.

The living room was attractively decorated with blue and pink larkspur. The tea table was centered with a plaque of garden flowers, with yellow candles accentuating the golden color scheme.

Roberta Stern, Evelyn Thorpe, Louise Campbell, Constance Sutherland, Mrs. E. J. Stern, and Mrs. Edith Savage received the guests.

Pledges serving were Misses Betty Jo Poe, Dorothy McMahon, Helene Bartlett, Rebecca Ruth Patton, Jane Bronson, and Mary Louise Armstrong.
