

NEW OFFICERS

'FRAMED': New officers of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce yesterday "framed" Irving S. Smith, new president, as they stood in front of photographs of former chamber presidents. Holding the frame were, clockwise from lower left, Wheeler Grey, re-elected a vice president; John Cartano, legal counsel; Frank Dupar, Sr., treasurer, and Howard H. Wright, a vice president. Dean H. Eastman also was named a vice president. Smith has served as a vice president the past two years. He will take office in September. Smith is a former Seafair King Neptune.
