

THE NEW ERA.

Springfield, IOWA, APRIL 5, 1923

NO. 35

OLD SETTLER DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

CAROLINE CARTANO AGED 93

Suffered A Broken Hip Two Years Ago
Which Confined Her to Her Bed
Until Death Released Her

Caroline Sophia Klein was born February 3, 1830 in Bischmisheim, near Saarbrucken, in Rhein Preussen, Germany. She was the youngest daughter of Jacob and Caroline Klein.

From the age of six to fourteen she attended the parochial school, at which time she was confirmed and received as a full member of the Lutheran Church to which she was faithful to the end. In the year 1850 she came to America, and on June 30, 1851, she was joined in marriage with Anton Cartano at Pottsville, Pennsylvania. They lived in Pennsylvania for twenty years and in 1869 came to Iowa.

Mrs. Cartano was the mother of sixteen children. Eleven of whom grew to maturity. Ten of them survive her: John of Anamosa; Anton, Springville; Jacob, Ireton, Iowa; Elizabeth Buxler, Los Angeles, California; Charles and Louise of Springville; Daniel, Seattle, Washington; Richard, Monticello; Trace Embree, Madrid, Iowa, and Bert of Granger, Washington.

On February 19, 1921, Mrs. Cartano suffered a fall from the results of which she had been confined to her bed to the time of her death. During all these years she bore her infirmity with the utmost patience. The end came on Tuesday evening, March 27, at the remarkable age of 93 years.

Short funeral services were conducted by Rev. L. P. Krome of Lisbon, Ia. assisted by Rev. W. H. Elges, pastor of the local Presbyterian church. The service was based upon a favorite passage of the deceased; 2nd Timothy 4:7,8: I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.