elderly victim dies in Richmond crash: An 82-year-old Richmond woman died Sunday when a car struck her about two blocks from the Richmond Senior Center.

The victim, Severina Cartano, lived at the center. And the driver worked there, police said.

Witnesses reported the crash about 2:50 p.m. A black Jeep Cherokee hit Cartano on the 200 block of 24th Street as she crossed, not in the crosswalk, Detective Sgt. Bias French said.

The driver stopped. Police made no arrests and continue to investigate the case.
